

Lucia is celebrating her life and legacy,

80

years of living and more to come.

Born in Brazil

I was the middle child
of the Algranti family.
With seven siblings,
my mom was busy,
attending to our
large apartment,

and there was never a dull moment...

We are a tribe
and we are still very close to one another,
till this very day!

I was told that I was a happy,
joyful, very curious,
and mischievous
toddler.

At school
I was never a top student..
both academically
and behaviorally..
But this never stopped me from pursuing a career as a lawyer.

Here I am, at a young age,
(in a ball celebrating the 11th year of the state of Israel)
where I met Marcos, the love of my life. From that day,
our lives merged together
and we never parted
in life nor work.

At the age of 20,
I was already a young bride,
ready to start my new life.

JUNE 27

1961

Can you tell how excited I was?

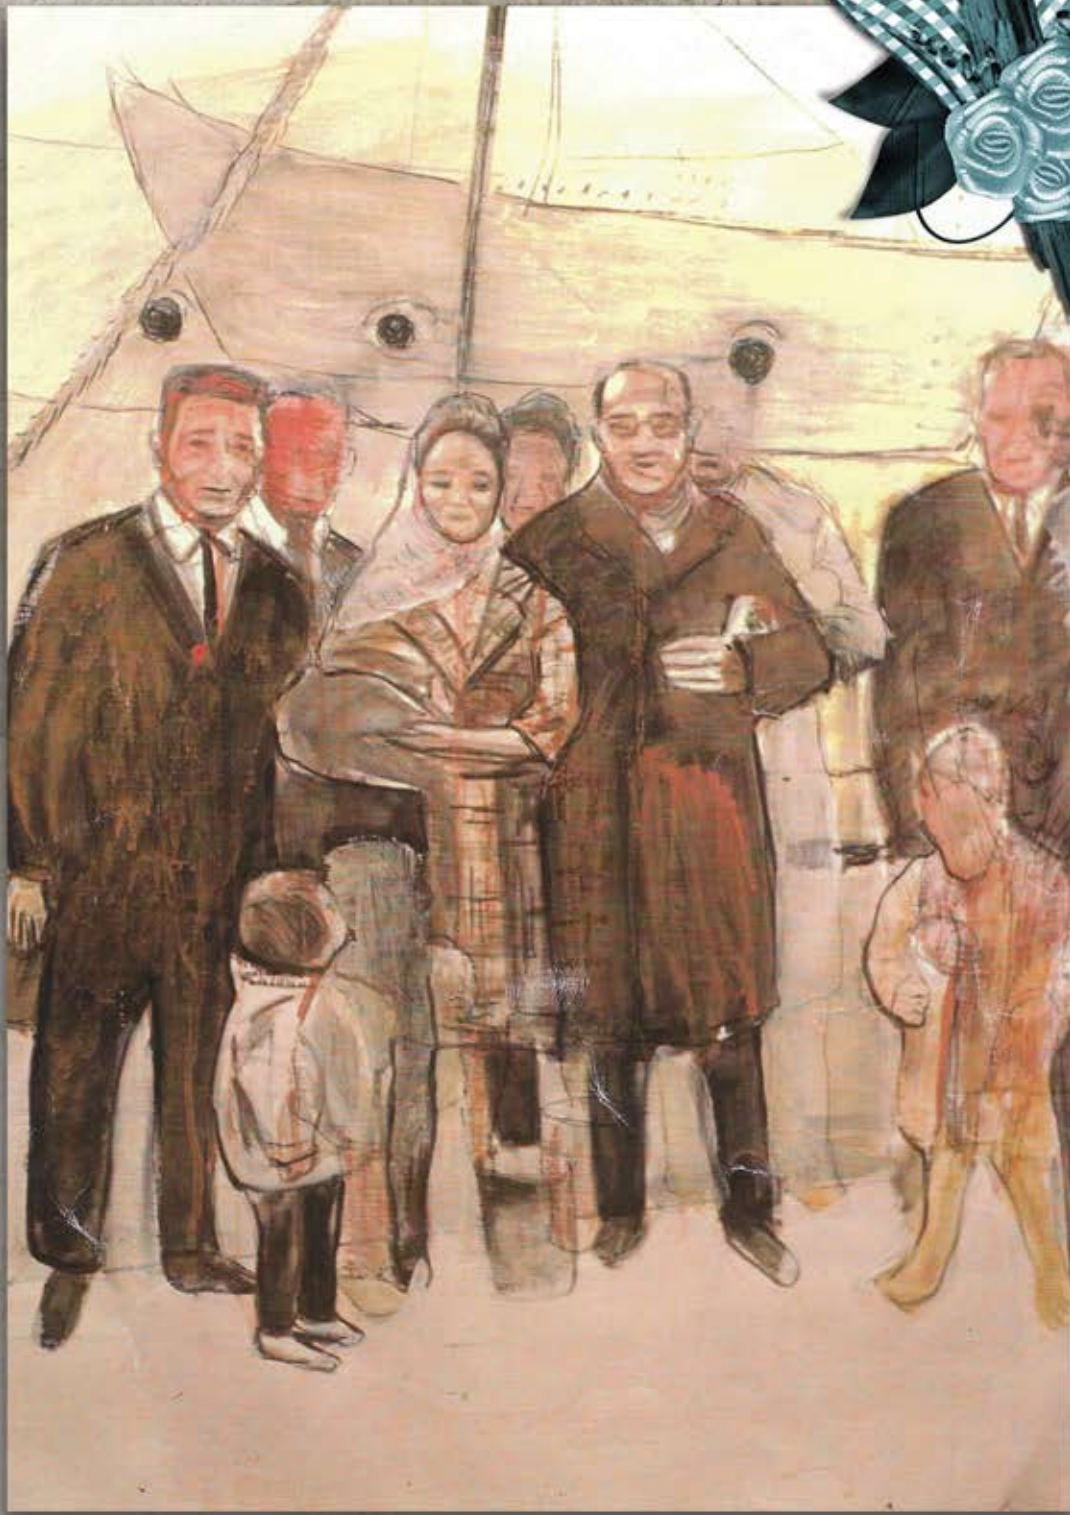

I started
studying law.

In Israel I completed
my advanced law degree.

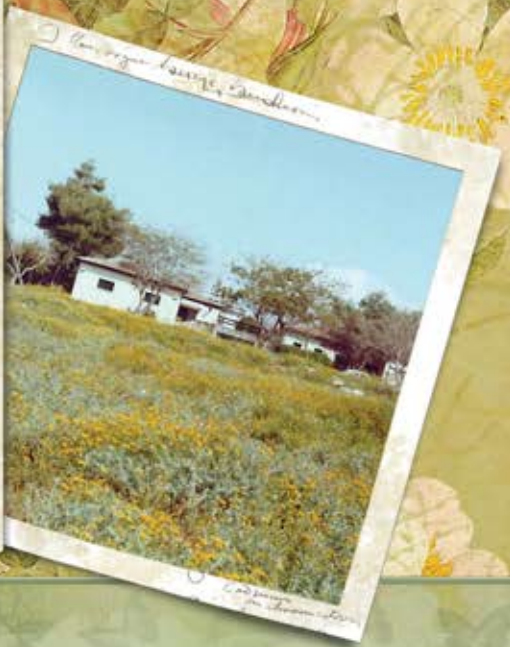

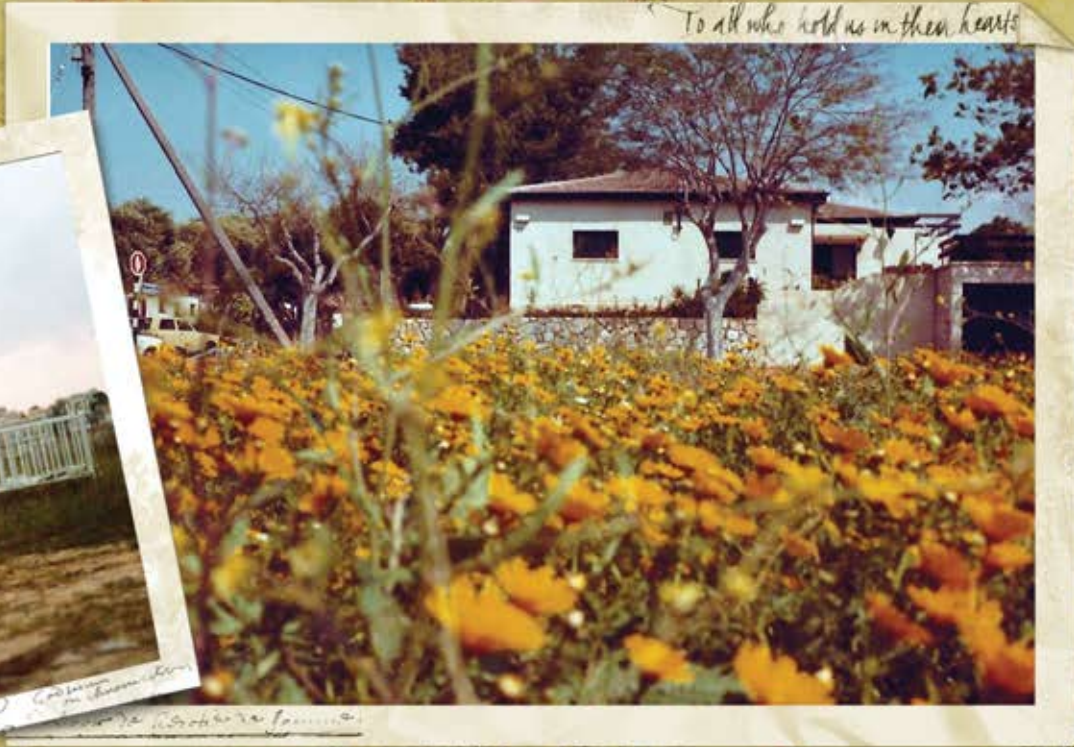

In 1967

we immigrated to Israel
with two young children.
We were in love with this country and wanted to be a part of the Zionist dream and legacy.

memories

To all who hold us in their hearts

We decided to settle down in a neighborhood called Zahala,
which was then, surrounded by hills,
uncultivated fields of thorny bushes,
and wild flowers.

So much has changed since then...

Zahala

Alex emerged into a accomplished musician
and composer.

Alex's Family

Here's Deborah (Debby)
my youngest daughter.

With her dear husband,

Phil
Ballman

And their lovely family.

There is nothing
like holding grandchildren

in your arms.

My magical
grandchildren:

Yonatan,
Daniel
and Udi

Special and notable moments with the grandkids.

And across the world-

we have two delightful granddaughters,

Naia and Eliana

In memory of my beloved parents,

Rafael and Aime, may they rest in peace.

My life has been a wonderful journey
that I wouldn't want any other way.

With a busy life as a lawyer,
my multiple interests and travels.
I make time to volunteer
in a local kindergarten
as it gives me great joy to be amongst young kids!

My dear husband Marcos,

sixty years of marriage!!

We do almost everything together.

We created a family
and made a home.

Growing up eating my mother's delicious Turkish cooking,

I also love to get busy and creative in the kitchen.

I love to cook and host for my friends and family at my home.

I was always very social and enjoy being in the company of my loved ones during holidays and celebrations.

It's so fun to travel and have outdoor picnics with my family.

When I married Marcos I told him - please don't get me gold and diamonds.
Instead, I wish to travel the world.

Sixty years later,
is there any place
we haven't visited?
